(a) 70% of the negative class was never assayed
Peptides
687
217
500
antioxidant (assayed positive)
non-antioxidant (assayed negative)
assumed negative (UniProt fragment, never assayed)

(b) Tyr, His and Trp carry the separation Mean residue frequency (%)
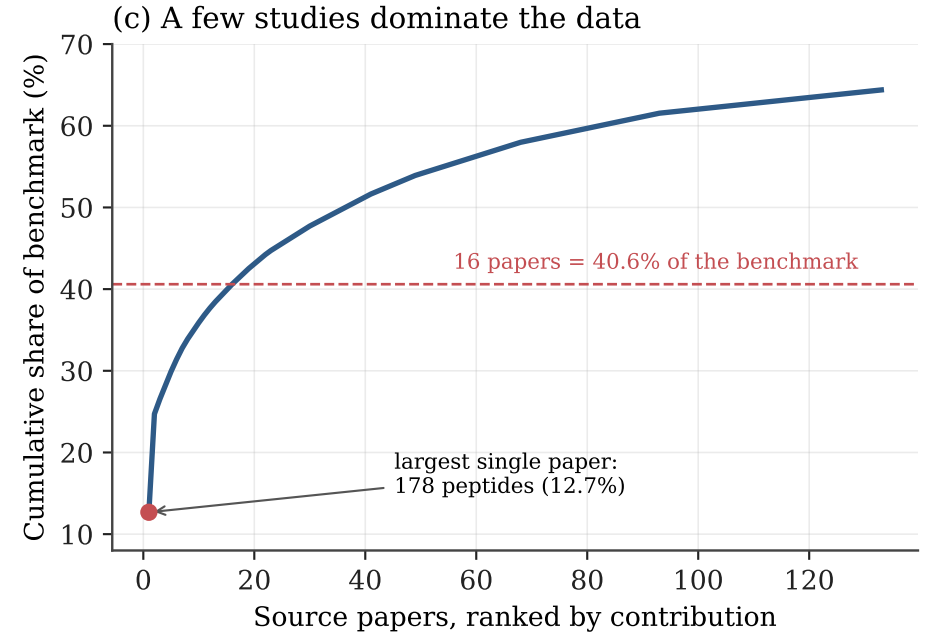
antioxidant
assayed negative
assumed negative
Y L P H G W A E V R F K Q D I S N T M C



(c) A few studies dominate the data
Cumulative share of benchmark (%) 16 papers = 40.6% of the benchmark largest single paper:
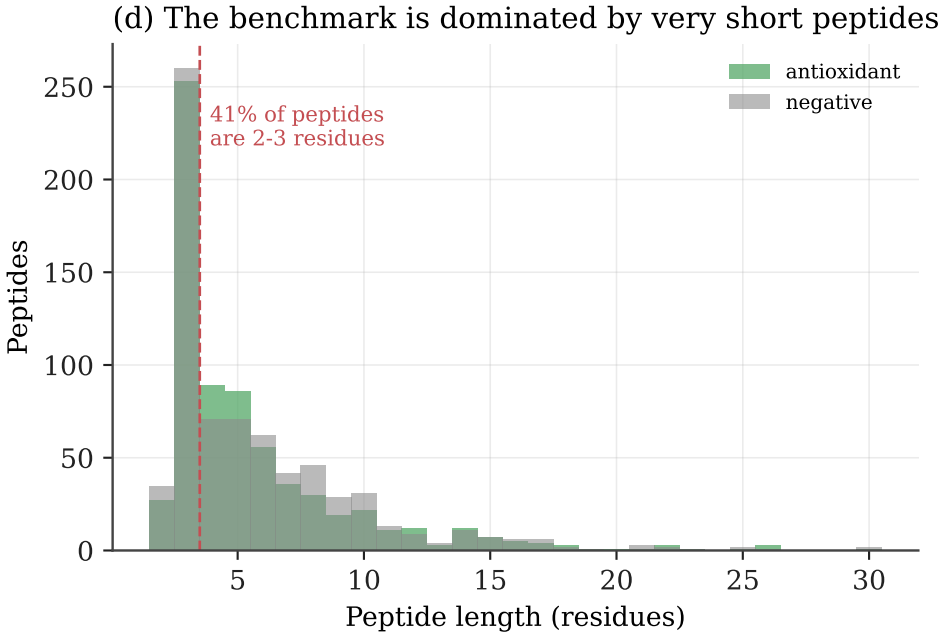
178 peptides (12.7%)
Source papers, ranked by contribution



(d) The benchmark is dominated by very short peptides antioxidant negative 41% of peptides
are 2-3 residues
Peptides
Peptide length (residues)